DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 36-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 36 recites the limitation "the end" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 37 recites the limitations "the abdomen" in line 3, and "the back" in line 4. There are insufficient antecedent bases for these limitations in the claim.

Claim 38 recites the limitations "the end" in line 3, and "the tail" in line 3. There are insufficient antecedent bases for these limitations in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 3712

Claim 36 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bennett et al.

Bennett et al. disclose a mobile robot being ambulatory and having at least a torso unit and at least two foot units (14,15), comprising an electrode terminal (108) for power feeding, in one of the at least two foot units (14,15) as recited in claim 36; the mobile robot being ambulatory and having at least a torso unit (11) and at least two foot units (14,15), comprising an electrode terminal (31,32) for power feeding, on the torso unit (11) as claimed in claim 37.

Claim 39 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Benjamin.

Benjamin discloses a connector having a generally semi-spherical projection (10), cut into at least a tip (the portion proximate reference numeral (10) thereof and one frustohemispherical slice (11), each serving as a connection terminal.

Claims 41 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Commerci et al.

Commerci et al. disclose an electrical connection structure perform electrical connection with connectors mutually in contact wherein one connector (28) is probe-like, and the other connector (40) is mesh-like , and wherein the electrical connection is established with the probe-like connector (28) is inserted into the mesh-like connector (40) at any position as recited in claim 41, and the probe-like connector (28) has a plurality of terminals arranged along the longitudinal direction thereof (see Figure 4, for example), and the mesh-like connector (40) has a plurality of layers (see Figure 4, for example) as recited in claim 42.

Claim 43 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tsutsui.

Tsutsui discloses an electrical connection structure performing electrical connection with connectors mutually in contact wherein the electrical connection structure comprises at least one electromagnet (36) which connects and disconnects one connector (3) to and from the other connector (4).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-19, and 21-35 allowed.

Claim 38 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
